Special Dispatch to The Star.

CUMBERLAND, Md., April 14 .- All five members of the Allegany county delegation in the Maryland legislature have declared for the renomination of George A. Pearre for Congress. The friends of Col. Pearre declare that there will be no trouble about his carrying the county Weather conditions and general forecast: over Lloyd Lowndes; that when Col. The Mississippi river at Memphis reached Pearre gets on the ground his generalover Lloyd Lowndes; that when Col. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. The local committee in charge of the convention has left nothing undone to bring a record-breaking attendance, and it is estimated that close to a thousand delegates, members and relatives will be here for the event.

The business sessions will be held in the assembly room of the New Willard. A reship will prevail over "idle boasts." Many vate have been for Col. Pearre, and it is claimed that he will publicly declare himseli ere long. David E. Dick, who claimed to control the republican situation at Lonaconing, has been flirting with both sides, so to speak. Dick always talks in a way to make his stand look mysterious. Conscious that he has a large personal following, his plan seems to be to have both sides run after him. Dick all through his primary campaign last fall declared that he was for Pearre for renomination, and that should Col. Pearre ever step aside he might consider being a candidate himself. The Lowndes forces are trying to make the Dick people believe that Col. Pearre did not give Dick enthusiastic support for the state senate last fall. The Pearre men say that the facts do not bear out the assertion. It is known that Col. Pearre did much hard personal work for Dick.

Wellington's Position.

It is declared that should ex-Senator Wellington come out for Lowndes that he could not take with him all the men who have been following him in the past, due to the fact that young Lowndes led the republican cut last fall against J. Henry Holzshu, the party candidate for county treasurer and Mr. Wellington's closest friend. The fight in the republican ranks against Mr. Holzshu was most bitter, and he was elected only by a narrow margin.
Mr. Lowndes' organ, the Daily News, was against Mr. Holzshu. Some of the German voters will never forgive Mr. Lowndes for his activity against Mr. Holzshu, no matter, it is said, what Mr. Wellington might do himself.

The Lowndes people are attacking Col. Pearre on his alleged incompetency as a leader. They also are trying to make it appear through the Cumberland Daily News, which is devoting nearly all its editorial space against Col. Pearre, and in advocacy of the nomination of Mr. Lowndes, that Col. Pearre's congressional career has been barren. This is, of course, laughed at. Among the many high tributes paid the ability of Col. Pearre was one by Senator Gorman, who said to a Cumberland man that Col. Pearre was one of the hardest working and most gifted men in Congress.

Pertinent to Lowndes. The Pearre people want to know what qualifications young Lowndes has shown for leadership. They quote what the late ex-Gov. Lowndes said of Col. Pearre in a speech here two years ago in the Academy of Music. On that occasion ex-Gov. Lowndes said: "We advised Jack. It is certain that the dog are going to elect Col. Pearre. Now that did not get into the dog pound, because the White House. In fact, he acted like a is not a chestnut; it is not a prediction. It the poundmaster and the entire police whole-souled typical westerner in the freeis a fact. Why are we going to re-elect force of this city have been on the lookout him? Because he is a republican and believes in every principle set forth in the platform adopted by the national republican convention at Chicago, and, further, he has most ably, for six years, represented this district and has made a splendid record and a splendid congressman. Who ever wrote him a letter to which he did not reversely a letter to which he was no occasion for him to be taken to the would be just an ordinary gray cat but for the pound, as he wore a collar, to which was six toes. If she wore shoes they would have to be made to order, as her front feet are much larger than the reach of her front feet that each of her front feet ply? Who ever received a promise from him which he has not fulfilled? What old soldier ever appealed to him in vain to help him with his pension? Who ever asked him to look after business matters pending before the departments and was refused? Thanks to you, Mr. Speaker (to Speaker Cannon, who was on the stage), he is a member of many important committees, and no one is more attentive to his work. When he addresses the House no one is listened to with greater attention.

Pearre's Health Impaired.

"On account of hard work in the committee room, in the departments, on the floor of the House his health has given away, and for six months he has been compelled -to rest. He wanted to be here tonight and was only restrained by his physicians, who urged him to rest a short while longer, to have a little more patience and he would have back his old strength. He has always been the leader in the fight, always boldly standing before his constituents and giving them an account of his stewardship. He has always led and asked others to fol-

"One true test of friendship is for one's friend to stand by him when he is absent and assailed by his enemies. Col. Pearre appeals to his friends to stand by him now his enforced absence and to make his fight for him. If he was here he would say to them: 'I am a republican. I am a friend to the laboring man. We must elect Roosevelt and Fairbanks, and continue our party in power. He may be back in time elected congressman from the sixth district of Maryland, and by the largest majority received by him."

ACTION OF ADMINISTRATION BOARD IN "MONTANA CASE."

Representatives of National D. A. R. Will Report That the Incident is Closed.

So far as the national board of administration of the D. A. R. is concerned, the Montana case is a closed chapter. Just on the stroke of 12 last night the board decided that Mrs. Walter Harvey Weed was legally elected a state vice regent of Montana, and that Mrs. McCracken was legally elected a state regent of Montana.

That it had been a lively meeting and not unattended by stirring incidents was in evidence as the members of the national board came out from a session which had lasted six hours. Most of them declined to talk-declined with an emphasis that was not mistaken. The story of the "battle of the glants" was, however, gleaned by the reporters who sat around throughout the evening listening to the play of the gavel on the table in the board room and picking out the speakers whose tones were not always kept within bounds.

The committee to / hich the matter was referred some time ago on election by the referred some time ago on election by the board, reported last week, it was learned, and it is stated their report vindicated Mrs. Weed's contention that she was legally elected; that she had a legal residence in Montana, and that she was the choice of the majority of the chapters of Montana for the offices which she has

INJURIES WERE FATAL.

William Holmes' Death Results From the Kick of a Horse.

William Holmes, colored, who was kicked by a horse and seriously injured while working in a stable near 20th and E streets northwest Wednesday afternoon, as stated in The Star at the time, died at the Emergency Hospital last night shortly before midnight. Holmes was kicked in the stomach and his life, it is stated, might have been saved had he not refused to have an operation performed. Coroner Nevitt and relatives were notified of his death. It is probable that the coroner will give a certificate of accidental death without the formality of an inquest.

Skeletons Unearthed. special Correspondence of The Star.

WHEELING W. Va., April 14, 1906. Twenty-four skeletons have just been unearthed six miles east of Wheeling, at historic Monument place, on the old national road, by a gang of laborers excavating for a new schoolhouse. The last is thoroughly vindicated by the action of occupant of the premises was Maj. Alex. the committee and board. It is also stated Loring, a veteran of the Mexican war, occupant of the premises was Maj. Alex. and the estate has been sold to a real estate syndicate which is converting it into a suburban addition. The skeletons were the remains of indians. Two Indian pipes were found beside their bones. Old inhabitants of the county recall traditions that this spot was once an Indian burial ground. In nearby parts of the county Indian relics have been turned up by ploughshares.

Monument place got its name from two pieces of statuary on its spacious lawn, one a great sun dial, and the other a symbolic figure carved on the spot by a wandering Italian sculptor who was given this afternoon directing that Greene and employment by the then owner of the home-Gaynor be taken to Macon for safe keeping. most cultured and distinguished pioners of western Virginia. A WOMAN DOCTOR

WAS QUICK TO SEE THAT COFFEE POISON WAS DOING THE MISCHIEF.

A lady tells of a bad case of coffee poisoning and tells it in a way so simple and straightforward that literary skill could not improve it. "I had pentalgic headaches for 12 years." she says, "and have suffered untold agony. When I first began to have them I weighed 140 pounds, their transfer to the federal prison at At- but they brought me down to 110. I went to many doctors and they gave me only temporary relief. So I suffered on, till one day in 1904, woman doctor told me to drink Postum Food Cotfee. She said I looked like I was coffee poisoned. "So I began to drink Postum and I gained 15 pounds in the first few weeks and am still gaining, but not so fast as at first. My headaches began to leave me after I had used Postum about
